

INTERNATIONAL RECIPROCAL AGREEMENT between

SULGRAVE CLUB

Washington, D.C.

and

CIRCOLO DEL MINISTERO DEGLI AFFARI ESTERI

Rome, Italy

1. The Clubs covered by this Agreement mutually agree to extend Club facilities to the visitor, provided that a letter of introduction with details about the length of stay from the visitor's home Club is presented.
2. Each member will pay the visiting club by credit card before departure.
3. The Sulgrave Club is a private social Club for women. It is a distinctly private club. As such, any activity in the furtherance of trade, business or a profession is prohibited. Reservations will be required and all charges incurred by a visitor at the Club must be paid from the personal funds of the visitor and may not be reimbursed by anyone in the furtherance of trade, business or a profession.
4. Members of each Club agree to abide by the House Rules of the other Club, particularly:
 - a. Rules concerning the observation of our dress code in our public spaces – Coat and tie for gentlemen, and dresses, suits, formal slacks with a jacket, or other attire of similar formality. Casual or athletic attire is only permitted when using our Fitness Center.
 - b. No cell phone use is permitted throughout all of the public spaces in the building.
5. This agreement shall remain continually in force until cancelled by either Club, in which case thirty (30) days written notice shall be given.
